NEW ORLEANS LOUISIANA 43rd Annual Meeting

The Association meets in New Orleans ("The Big Easy"), March 11-13, 2004 at the Le Pavillon Hotel. Mark Partridge, 2004 President-elect, is putting together the program with sessions exploring an ever wider range of regional topics. Mark reports that he has been busy putting together a very stimulating program. He also reports that he has received a sizable number of papers. The sessions will begin at 4pm on the 11th and run through 6pm on the 13th.

LE PAVILLON HOTEL

NOTE: CUT OFF DATE FEBRUARY 9

The Le Pavillon Hotel is the conference hotel. A historic first-generation skyscraper, Le Pavillon Hotel, "The Belle of New Orleans", has many unique traditions, such as a nightcap of peanut butter and jelly sandwiches with hot chocolate or cold milk served each evening in the lobby. The hotel is located in the heart of New Orleans, steps away from prominent office buildings, the Federal Courts and City Hall. A short stroll to the French Quarter, Mississippi Riverfront attractions, The Morial Convention Center, Superdome, major shopping and, of course, the famed St. Charles Avenue Streetcars.

The cut off date for reservations at the special conference rate is February 9.

Conference Rate: $153, single or double occupancy, $20 for each additional person
To make reservations, call the hotel: 504-581-3111 or toll free 1-800-535-9095 and ask for the Southern Regional Science Association rate.

Check out the hotel at their web site: <http://www.lepavillon.com>
